GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Make certain this test booklet contains Jobs 1-4.
2. For any problem where you would normally use your reference initials, use your contestant number. Your name or initials should NOT appear on any work you submit. Key your contestant number and job number as the footer in the lower left-hand corner of all work submitted unless otherwise specified.

Example: 99-9999-9999
 Job 1

3. Be sure to proofread and correct all errors before printing.
4. If you finish before the end of the 60 minutes of testing, notify the proctor. Time may be a factor in determining the winner in the event of a tie.
5. When turning in your materials, place your scoring sheet on top of your jobs. The jobs should be arranged in numerical order.

This year's insurance informational meeting will be Wednesday, March 26, 2014. The insurance representatives will be in the conference center from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and from 1:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Please review your current insurance choices so you will be up to date. Enclosed are your last year's choices. Representatives will be able to discuss possible changes and updates to your policies that you can make during the enrollment period.

Please contact Juan Garcia in HR to set up an appointment with an insurance representative.

Sincerely

Julie Smith
Human Resources Department

We are excited to spotlight progress in our service areas and thank you for your support and confidence as we continue to improve our services.

Systems Analysis

A former PBA intern, we are excited to have Chad Walls as a full-time Systems Analyst. Chad brings experience and enthusiasm to our team, while continuing our high standards of service.

Software Development and Design

In Beta testing with a projected spring rollout, your request for network management software has resulted in a package that can push out image installations, track inventories, provide automated installation and updates, and manage backups.

Hardware and Software Sales

Hardware and software sales remain steady with equipment sales and our newest virus scan and spyware software. The PBA website provides far-reaching advertising for these products.
