Job 1 – News Release

The Marketing Department Manager of PBA wants you to key the following news release information, using the Style & Reference Manual. Correct any spelling or punctuation errors you find.

UnPlugged Plugs IN

UnPlugged a subsidiary of PBA announces the launch of digital signage technology. UnPlugged founders have built an interactive, realtime, and wireless TV network that allows brands and customers to communicate via smartphone in venues equipped with UnPlugged Intelligent TVs.

Formed in late Nov of 2013, the team moved from a garage to a loft downtown and had contracts to install the UnPlugged TV in over 2,000 venues in three weeks, and had 6-figure revenue contracts with advertisers after a month. Two months later, the toddler startup was the digital TV screen provider at the Boston Auto Convention which had over 25,000 people in attendance.

As CEO Janice Rollo leads a team of four male co-founders and three male employees. Janice knows how to code, too, and the team is very supportive of the growing Girls in Tech and the Girls Who Code movement. Asked what it's like to have a female lead of the male-dominated team, Alex said, "Being a girl versus not being a girl isn't particularly a factor we consider. Our team is our most important asset, and we all live and breath UnPlugged. In fact, many of our teammates live together in a house in downtown Boston."
