General Instructions

You are working as an administrative assistant at Professional Business Associates (PBA), floating amongst departments as needed. Currently you are on the project team for planning PBA's National Convention. Correct errors in spelling and word usage.

1. Make certain this test booklet contains Jobs 1-4.
2. For any job where you would normally use your reference initials, use your contestant number. Your name or initials should NOT appear on any work you submit. Key your contestant number and job number as a footer in the left hand corner of all work submitted.
3. If you finish before the end of the testing time, notify the administrator of the contest. Time may be a factor in determining the winner in the event of a tie.
4. When turning in your completed work, place your Scoring Sheet on top of all of your jobs. The jobs should be arranged in numerical order. Turn in all partial jobs.

Every year the National Convention presents opportunities for and challenges with meeting technology needs. This report will address the needs, progress in meeting the needs, and concerns.

Assessment Procedures

The following steps were taken to assess technology needs for this year's convention:

Each competition was reviewed for software and hardware to be provided.

The quantity of contestants per competition in which equipment will be provided was calculated.

The room size of each competition was reviewed for occupancy and space restrictions to calculate the maximum number of devices to allocate to each room.

Each learning session was reviewed for software and hardware needs.

Exhibitor requests for additional technology needs were reviewed and calculated.

Technology Needs

A total of 257 laptops with Office 2010 (running Windows 7 or 8), five laptops with Windows 8 running Office 2013, three projection units, and 52 flash drives are needed in 14 rooms for competitions. In addition, 15 projection units will be needed for the learning breakout sessions, and five overhead jumbo projection screens will be needed for the awards ceremony.
